Roanoke Ballet Theatre is dedicated to promoting the heritage, development, and enjoyment of dance by offering outstanding and accessible recreational, pre-professional and professional level dance instruction and performance within a diverse Southwest Virginia community.

Sandra Meythaler
Executive Director

Ms. Meythaler was a Principle Ballerina with the National Ballet of Ecuador. She has performed ballet and contemporary dance around the world including Peru, Belgium,

Germany, Italy, England, France, Spain, Brazil, Columbia and Japan. She began dancing professionally at the age of fifteen with Compania Nacional de Dance in Ecuador and then joined the National Ballet of Ecuador in 1989. She also danced with Ballet Novo, Opera Ecuador and Koral y Esmeralda. In 2001 Sandra became a part of Roanoke Ballet Theatre and was promoted to Director in 2007. Her multi talents are augmented by her world class teaching style which incorporates international dance styles in traditional ballet syllabus.

Rolando Sarabia
Ballet Master

Rolando Sarabia began his ballet studies in Matanza, Cuba in 1969 at the Provincial School of Ballet. He then continued his training at the National Ballet School in La Havana where he graduated in 1977. He was a Soloist and Principle with the National Ballet of Cuba under the direction of Prim Ballerina Absolut Alicia Alonso. He has performed in over 50 countries on all continents and in companies such as Ballet Theatre Teresa Carreno in Venezuela, Cali Ballet in Colombia, Giona Campobello Company in Mexico, and renowned institutions such as Paris Opera, Bolshol and Kirov. After 35 years of dancing professionally he has become a Ballet Master of International Stature. In the spring of 2015, Rolando Sarabia became the Ballet Master of Roanoke Ballet Theatre.
